

Summit Goal

Learn from experts about current federal policies that affect mothers, babies, and families, and how community health workers and community-based maternal and child health programs are impacting the field.

Take charge with trainings and tools to influence your elected officials at our Advocacy Day on Wednesday, Feb. 29th.

Be inspired by community health workers and maternal and child health leaders from across the country!

Target Audience

Stakeholders interested in cutting-edge community-based maternal & child health programs, including: community health workers, community-based doulas, breastfeeding peer counselors, maternal and child health advocates, program supervisors, administrators, researchers, educators, policy makers, government officials, students, social innovators and community leaders.

Lodging / Hotel Information

Hilton Arlington
950 North Stafford Street
Arlington, VA 22203

A block of rooms has been reserved for $229/night. This special room rate will be available until January 27, 2012 or until the group block is sold-out, whichever comes first. To make a reservation, please call (703) 528-6000 and request a room with the "HealthConnect One" group. All reservations must be guaranteed with a major credit card.

Alternately, you may make room reservations online by visiting http://www.healthconnectone.org/pages/national_action_summit/72.php

Transportation

The Hilton Arlington is closest to Reagan National Airport, however the hotel is convenient to all three DC-area airports via car, taxi, shuttle (www.supershuttle.com) or public transportation.

By Subway/Metro, take the Orange Line to the Ballston-MU stop. At the top of the escalator, walk straight into the Ballston Metro Center complex (20 feet). The hotel lobby is on the left.

For driving directions, please visit www.mapquest.com. Self-parking is available for maximum $17/day.
